TOPICS OF THE TIME.

A FIFTEEN-MILE FLUME HAS JUST BEEN completed in Nevada, at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, which opens up a twelve thousand-acre tract of woodland at Truckee Meadows, and as wood at that way is some twelve dollars a cord, it is a good investment.

The collection of Mr. George Cruik-shank's works has been purchased for five thousand pounds, for the new Winter Garden at Manchester, England, and the plan of purchase for the nation has had accordingly to be abandoned. The collection includes oil paintings, watercolor drawings, and proof etchings produced between 1799 and 1875.

ANDREW JOHNSON is the sixth member of the Forty-fourth Congress to die before the regular labors of that body have commenced. The vacant chairs in the House are those of Mr. Buffington, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Hervey, of Maine,

(two Republicans) and of Mr. Allen, of

New York; Mr. Head, of Tennessee, and Mr. LaDow, of Oregon (three Democrats).

The tunnel under the English channel will be constructed between Cape

Grizgand and Folkestone. It will be twenty-four miles long, and as the French

Assembly and the English Parliament have passed their respective canal tunnel-bills, and there is plenty of money in the hands of the tunnel companies, the work will soon be commenced.

SOME years ago, Benjamin Nathan, a rich Jew, was mysteriously murdered in his own house, in Twenty-second street,

New York. No clue to the murderer was ever found by the police, unless the recent statement of an ex-police officer that he once arrested the murderer, but was forbidden to prosecute him by the authorities and a son of the murdered man, is true.

A CALCULATION has been made of the number of persons the great cathedrals of the European Continent will hold.

St. Peter's at Rome, holds 54,000 people;

the Milan Cathedral holds 37,000; St.

Paul's at Rome, holds 25,000; St. Sophia, at Constantinople, holds 25,000; Notre Dame, at Paris, holds 21,000; the cathedral at Pisa holds 18,000, and San Marco, at Venice, holds 7,000.

A SINGULAR legacy has been made in the will of the late James McCord, of Plymouth, N. H. He leaves a considerable sum to the I. O. O. F. Missionary Society, which is to be kept at interest till it reaches $150,000; $100,000 is then to be invested in a business block in Boston and the remaining $50,000 sum left till it reaches $160,000, when the sum of $100,-

000 is to be put into a business block again, and so on indefinitely. The society will receive the rents of the buildings.

A YOUNG lady, Miss Antoinette Blau, took part in a rowing regatta, a few days ago, at Washington. A correspondent says that she sat in her boat the embodiment of grace and conscious strength.

On her left breast glinted the bright gold medal presented to her on Wednesday, and near it was pinned a spray of tea-roses. She is not yet twenty years old, but the full, firm shoulders, deep breast, and muscular but prettily turgid arms indicated at once natural strength and careful training. Just a little above the average height of women, she has light hair and handsome blue eyes, and a

the dress reformers sigh for. She wore a black silk skirt and a sailor-like cutaway jacket. A silk handkerchief was bound about her forehead in the usual boating style, and her hands were protected by gloves. The boats got on pretty nearly even, but the lady and her companion who rowed with her were a trifle ahead.

Their tactics were soon developed. After rowing steadily for a half dozen strokes, they quickened to about forty strokes with tremendous power. The boat shot far ahead for the first half mile. This was an error. Had they husbanded their force, it is conceded the lady might have been a winner. As it was, she came in third, beating two other crews.

TERMS CASH.

On taking charge of this paper in February last, we took quite a number of subscribers' names upon the promise that the money would be forthcoming. Six months have passed, and still we look in vain for the fulfillment of those promises. Last week we sent out a number of polite intimations that we could not afford to present so many people with $2. We have, as yet, heard from only a few. We intend to strike from our list every delinquent subscriber, and will, in future, put no name on our books unless the necessary amount of cash accompanies it. Experience has driven us to this. Our friends will appreciate our position—our enemies may go to thunder.

DYALDSON.—This intrepid aeronaut, who, it will be remembered, went up in a balloon from Chicago recently, in company with a newspaper reporter, is said to have been found in the woods of Canada, in a most frightful condition. He was still alive when found, but only lived long enough to give some of the facts connected with the horror. He says that shortly after he ascended, they were struck by a severe storm that nearly collapsed his balloon. After throwing out all of the ballast, he yet saw that his airship was too heavy, and that both he and Grimwood would perish if one was not sacrificed. He knew that to leave Grimwood alone, would be but a short prolongation of his life, as he knew nothing of the management of a balloon. While he was determining in his mind what to do, he observed Grimwood, who was sitting crouched up, his teeth chattering, and his whole body quaking with fear, about to discharge a pistol at him, he immediately caught hold of Grimwood and threw him into the lake. His balloon then shot up above the storm, when he fell into a half-conscious condition from which he was not aroused until his basket struck a tree in its descent, breaking his arm and leg, and leaving him in an almost uninhabited country, where he subsisted on berries and herbs, until found, many days after his fall. His wounds were in a terrible condition, gangrene having set in at every place. Thus has ended the mortal career of one of the most fool-hardy air navigators that has ever lived. His fate has not prevented Barnum from hiring another balloonist, a second fool having been secured in his stead.

RELIGIOUS.—The South District Association of the Baptist Church, met near Danville this week, and are still in session, but will close to-day or to-morrow. Rev. R. L. Thurman, an Agent of the General Association of this Church, has been traveling through this section of the State, in the interest of the same, and the Mission cause which he represents. He has met with considerable success, as he is an earnest and faithful worker, and has devoted almost his entire life to it. We learn that the Bates' Creek Association of the Baptist Church, will meet at Crab Orchard on Tuesday next, Aug. 31st, and continue three days. The "Centennial Meeting" of the Church, will be held at, or near Gilbert's creek Church, on Friday, Sept. 3d. Several very distinguished ministers of this denomination, will be in attendance, and the meeting promises to be one of the most interesting, held for many years.

MURDER.—ONE WOMAN SHOTS ANOTHER.—On Monday last, two women of questionable virtue became engaged in a broil at Paint Lick, in Garrard county, when one of them, Mary Pointer, seized a shot gun and pointing it at another named Liz. Scarborough, fired, killing her instantly. Pointer took the first train, expecting that she could escape in this land of telegraphs, but was arrested at Shelby City, and taken back for trial. She claims that though it was her intention at sometime, to take the life of her victim, that the shot was purely accidental. Of course, that question will be decided at the examining trial to-day, but from what we can hear of the case, the believe Mary stands but a poor chance to prove her innocence.

A SHARP REBUKE.—Since the tirade of abuse was heaped upon the Hon. Jefferson Davis by the people of Winnebago county, Ill., and the Chicago Inter-Ocean newspaper, the good people of many other sections of the West and North-West, have been pouring in invitations, imploring him to come among them and address the people, and he has accepted one of them. This by way of rebuke to the fanaticism and ignorance of his traducers. Winnebago has acquired an enviable notoriety, and she will be known in history only as the county whose mouth bit off its nose to spite its face.

HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS was born in Christian county, Ky.

THE ARGUS eye of the Chief Engineer of the Courier-Journal, once detected a painful error in the date line of this Journal, and heralded it to the world, to our great humiliation, and our watchful foreman's discredit. However graciously the fellow did it, and with what apparent ease it was thrown off—that item has been a thorn in our side, an incubus in our way ever since; and we have watched the C. J. with a fell and fiendish purpose since the "31st of April," hoping to be avenged. The day of our triumph has come. Yesterday the C. J. came to us dated "Wednesday, Aug. 25th, 1875." Those who domiciliate in crystal abodes, ought not to cast the adamantine missile.

MOUNTAIN ECHO.—The full returns from the State make McCreary's majority only 35,902. What does the Interior Journal think about it?

We think you are mistaken, and we moreover think and know that Mr. Boyd was defeated by the "watch candidate and wood chopper" Underwood, by over 40,000, and so was every other candidate on your ticket with a single exception, (Griffin,) and he was defeated by that number lacking less than 100.

EDWIN BOOTH, son of the great Booth, is one of the greatest actors in this country, and is equal, if not superior to any one in Europe. The other day, while driving out on a pleasure trip, his horses became frightened, ran away, overturned the carriage, and the tragedian was knocked senseless. His wounds were thought to be fatal, for a time, but we now learn that he is out of danger, and that he will be able to fill his Southern engagements.

THE Kentucky Codes of Practice are under revision. Hon. Alvin Duval has been appointed Umpire of the Commissioners on revision, in place of Hon. G. W. Craddock who has been elected to the Legislature from Franklin county. Judge R. A. Buckner, of Lexington, and Hon. J. F. Bullett, of Louisville, are the Commissioners, and they are progressing rapidly with the much needed work, and it will be presented to the next General Assembly for action thereon.

PLAYED OUT.—The general impression prevails, that the Chicago Inter-Ocean, a Radical daily of the most rampant type, is now hanging by a slender thread. Indeed, it is said that it is in its last throes. Wherefore? Simply because the managing editor thereof, can look only upon one side of any question, and the more Radical that question, the better for him.

WE are informed that out of the 18 dogs returned in Fayette county for taxation, eight were given in by an old gentleman living on the Georgetown pike, who says that the whole of the 18 could be found on his place, though he, himself, owns but one. That assessor must be afraid of dogs and did not go to places that they were kept.

THEY are having a bully old time over in Ohio. Governor Allen has to fight the whole Radical press, and several of his own brethren, over the currency question. The Enquirer, however, is doing yeoman service for him, and the indications all point toward a grand triumph for the Democratic ticket.

THE opposition manifested by the people of Illinois against the invitation of Jeff. Davis to address an Agricultural Association, has its counterpart in the action of certain Ohio Christians, who gravely expunged the 51st Psalm from their hymn books because it commences—

"Shew pity Lord, oh, Lord, forgive, Let a repenting Rebel live."

It is said that Hons. J. B. Beck and Gen. J. S. Williams are opposed to a resumption of specie payment, and that Senator Stevenson favors it. We believe that a large majority of Kentuckians agree with the former; which fact will destroy the latter's chance for a re-election to the U. S. Senate.

WHAT has become of the new postal card promised the country some time since? The paper on which the present kind are printed, is but little better than blotting paper, as the ink spreads badly upon them. Let us hope to see a better glazed surface in the next, without the margin.

WE saw a gentleman recently, who said he had seen the veritable mummy at the Grand Avenue Cave, which was discovered a short time since, and he informs us that it is worth a trip down there to see this being of a former race of humans.

PEOPLE up in the mountains should now be satisfied. They have decided to divide on the "color line," and have a White man and a Black man to represent them—the first in the National and the latter in the State Legislature.

JOHN T. TAYLOR, a grand son of Gen'l Zach Taylor, who is a post master somewhere in Kansas, is under arrest, charged with taking money from registered letters in his office. Those who know him think he is innocent.

WE are indebted to Senator T. C. McCreary, for Public Documents of a valuable kind—the most important of which is the Annual Report on the Commercial Relations between the United States and Foreign Nations.

Grand Temperance Mass Meeting at Highland.

On Wednesday, 25th inst., in company with that indefatigable, whole-souled and zealous temperance advocate, J. B. Green, Deputy G. W. C. T., we proceeded to Highland, where, in accordance to a previous announcement, we met the good people of the neighborhood assembled in the Christian Church, (Mt. Moriah), awaiting the hour for calling the meeting to order. On approaching the Church, we beheld men, women and children, wending their way on foot, to the place consecrated to the worship of that God who has issued his mandate that "no drunkard shall enter the Kingdom of Heaven."

The meeting was called to order, and after singing some Gospel songs, led by our genial young friend, Willie McKinney, and prayer by Elder Jas. M. Cook, brother J. B. Green delivered one of the most soul-stirring addresses it has ever been our pleasure to hear. Entering into the spirit of his subject with that real which gave him the most profound attention of the entire audience. After which, Elder J. M. Cook, one of God's own children, and a temperance man all over, made a few very appropriate remarks, after which, "Highland Star" Lodge was organized with 52 charter members.

The following named ladies and gentlemen were duly installed as officers of said Lodge: Alfred Bastin, D. G. W. C. T.; Jas. Bastin, P. W. C. T.; Elder J. M. Cook, W. C. T.; Nannie Terry, R. S.; Serena Young, L. S.; Cyrus Young, W. S.; Jennie Baugh, W. A. S.; Emma Godby, W. V. T.; John Ham, W. F. S.; D. Baugh, W. C.; Amanda Rigney, W. T. A.; G. M. Mower, W. M.; Mary Horton, W. D. G. M.; M. G. Mowbray, W. O. G. We think that a lodge with such men and women as its officers, together with mothers whom we could mention, who compose this lodge, it will be a long time ere the hydra-headed monster will again be enabled to coil his slimy folds around the body of Highland precinct.

After enjoying a portion of a night's rest, and the kind hospitality of our old friend, Joseph Baugh, we returned home, thanking God that we were permitted to visit Highland, and hoping that the smiles of Heaven may ever rest upon "Highland Star" lodge.

A TEMPLAR.

The Graded School.

In order that no one may have the ghost of an opportunity to accuse me of selfish motives, let it be distinctly understood that I hereby publicly, and most positively, pledge my honor as a gentleman, that I will seek no position in the Stanford Graded High School; and, further, that I will not accept any position in it, if offered to me. If the effort to build up such a school succeeds, of which success I have not the shadow of a doubt, I hereby obligate myself by an express promise, and an unalterable purpose, to withdraw from the educational fold, so far as Stanford and vicinity are concerned.

I deem this course of conduct on my part, to be conducive to the best interests of the cause of education here and elsewhere. In the part that I shall take in the coming discussion, please let no one imagine that I am actuated by any bad motive. My desire is, that you may, as a community, have far better education at a much lower price, and that too, without making against the interest of those who are engaged in the work of teaching. Remember, I stand pledged to leave Stanford, only on condition that the Graded School is established. I know that this arrangement ought to be made; and I feel assured it will be done.

I am authorized to say that Dr. Henderson, the able and enthusiastic Superintendent of Public Instruction, will pay us a visit ere long, to present this matter fairly and fully, to our careful consideration. In the meantime, let us calmly reason together, and be thinking over the question among ourselves. What would be the aggregate cost of education to the community, as compared with what we are now paying. Suppose we organize a school district of the town and the circumjacent country, sufficient to furnish 200 pupils. Let this Graded School be the only one in the district. Six teachers could give thorough instruction to 240 pupils when skillfully graded and classified. To secure a good Principal, a ripe scholar, and an energetic, enthusiastic and efficient educator, give him a salary of $1500. The successful working of the school depends largely on the character of the man at the head of it. This imparts unity, system and efficiency to the whole. Get the right man there, and keep him there. Then give him five good assistants, at the following salaries, respectively: $1000, $800, $700, $600, $400. The entire amount paid to the teachers would thus be $5,000. You would get at least 40 pupils out of the district. At $30 each, this would be $1200. Deduct this from $5,000, it leaves $3,800. Then deduct the $400 public money from the school fund, you then have $3,400 to be paid by the district for educating 200 pupils for a year. This averages $17 to the pupils of all grades, from the lowest to the highest. You now pay $30 for the lowest grade.

In the school on the hill, you pay $50 for the highest grade; studying Latin, Greek, Grammar, &c. In the Girl School you pay $50 for advanced English studies, and $20 extra for each additional language, Ancient or Modern. If a girl takes only one classical and one Modern Language, her tuition would be $80 a year. It is clear, as to a sum to any one who will take the time to think, that the price of education, by this plan, could be reduced to less than one-half what we are paying for it now. But it would be bad policy to get a cheap article that is worthless. If we would be shrewd calculators, we must inquire into the character of the article, the quality, as well as the cost. When a teacher has scholars of various degrees of advancement, his classes are so numerous that he has but little time to each recitation. By the time he gets a class interested in a lesson, the time is expired, and another class must be called up to be carried through a similar hurried and unsatisfactory process. The teacher has the mortification of seeing his earnest efforts result in comparative failure, and the children grow up without an education worthy of the name. In a graded school, the case would be very different. Each instructor has but few classes to hear, as his pupils are better classified, and all of pretty nearly the same stage in the course of study. He can give full time to each recitation, and do his work thoroughly. This is more pleasant to the teacher, and more beneficial to his pupils. By examining the figures proposed for salaries, you will readily see that they provide for first class educational talent in the corps of teachers. The teachers of the lower-grades could work more efficiently in the town than they could singly, because the Principal could have weekly meetings of his corps, to talk over with them his own views of discipline and instruction, and they would all work according to his plan. He would thus give unity, energy and efficiency to the whole system.

Such a combination of teachers, with this clock-work regularity, could give a pretty good collegiate education to your sons and daughters at home. You would, under the plan proposed, have far better and higher educational facilities than have ever been realized in the town heretofore.

Will you, by union, have a superior article at an inferior price? Thousands of other towns have this arrangement, and so one of us knows, has ever desired to go back to the old status of things. But I am tired of writing this long article. Come to the Court House, Saturday, 28th, at 7 o'clock, and I'll take pleasure in giving a short speech to set the ball in motion. One man is not much. The permanent interests of an entire community, is a matter of greater importance.

CASEY COUNTY NEWS.

Liberty. We are for the present enjoying ourselves hugely at the capital of Casey county. We are faring sumptuously. We alternate our time, while off duty, between the fine hotel of our friend, Bob Pierce, and the hospitable mansion of our former partner in moral and philanthropic excursions, Col. Silas Adams. Among other noted personages we had the pleasure of meeting here, are Col. Frank Wolford and the sociable Judge J. Boyle Stone. We were not surprised to see Boyle there, and, emancipated, and apparently traveling fast in direction of the "bone yard." Boyle lived much fatter while subsisting from client's fees than he has from the Judge's salary. One hundred and seventy-five dollars per year—would starve a more robust man than Boyle to death.

COUNTY COURT was in session yesterday, but nothing, we believe, of importance transpired. The Teachers' Institute is now in session—with D. W. Coleman as chairman, G. W. Chevis conductor, and E. Tarrant Secretary. There is an unusually large attendance. Among other distinguished persons present, we notice, Prof. J. K. Azbell, President Columbia College; H. C. Dunn, Principal Columbia High School and Miss Hannah Bergen, Principal Christian College, Hustonville. Report next week.

A FEW nights since, Mr. Ben Lawhorn, had a horse stolen, and the thief, David Z. Floyd, was hotly pursued, captured and lodged in jail here. This morning a number of men appeared in town with a bench warrant from Adair county, claiming the prisoner—he, having forfeited a bail-bond in that county. His offense there was an over-friendliness for other people's bacon. Court refused to give him up.

WM. BENSON and his son Joe, removing an old fence row a few days since, killed two rattlesnakes, one having eight, the other nine rattles; and it was not a good day for snakes either.

BRUCE BUTT, a young man, living near Willow Springs, one week ago, was bitten on the foot by a copperhead snake, the poison taking instantaneous effect. Whisky being only the remedy thought of by those present, a quart of that article was sent for, and those present, fearing it might tempt some one to break the pledge, thought it safest to hide it as quick as possible, therefore, the entire contents of the bottle was poured down the suffering young man, after which, he lay speechless for ten hours. Medical science is still puzzled to know whether the bite of the whisky or snake deprived him of the power of speech. He has now nearly recovered. Most of the young there, are now going "bare-foot."

MARRIED on Knob Lick Creek, on the 23d inst., by the Rev. Robt. Elder, Mr. Jas. T. Snow to Miss Emily C. Jeffries.

JAS. H. HALL killed a curious greenish-colored bird belonging to the crane family, a few days since, which measured 27 inches from tip to tip of wings, and 24 inches from the end of its bill to the end of its toe—and yet its weight was only seven ounces.

CHAS. NAPIER's trial for the cutting of Dougherty's throat on election day, takes place to-day.

WE have also had the pleasure of meeting Dr. F. O. Young, the lively correspondent of the Danville Advertiser. In haste, ETHELBERT.

News items were never scarcer before in this section. The Association of Separate Baptists, convened at Brush Creek Church, on 21st inst., with many distinguished Divines present, and a large audience in attendance. May this union of God's people result in much good.

ADAM CARPENTER, of Casey, has a fine herd of short horns. He is doubtless an enterprising cattle raiser, and we are indebted to him for having made the start with the short horns.

A BODY of men, armed and equipped, hailing from Adair county, came to Liberty on Tuesday, the 24th inst., for the purpose of taking one Mr. Floyd, an inmate of Liberty jail, to Columbia, claiming that their claim on him was prior to that of the authorities at Liberty. It seems that the said Floyd had committed some depredation in Adair.

THE Casey County Teachers Association convened at Liberty, on the 23d inst. Your feeble reporter had the pleasure of attending the first day. We are proud to say quite a number of persons were present. There are fifty scholars now being taught in the county; forty-nine of which, are represented in this Institute. Among the rest, we noticed Miss Bergen, of Hustonville, Prof. Dunn and Asbell, of Columbia, and others of marked ability. We also met, while there, Dr. F. O. Young, J. H. Hankins, Prof. Chevis, and Judge J. B. Stone. W. Congratulate Liberty, on having procured such medical skill as Dr. Y., and by the way, quite a genial fellow. CASEY.

LANCASTER, KY.

The undersigned having purchased the Miller House, in Lancaster, Ky., and refitted it up in good style, he flatters himself that he is able to treat his guests with as good accommodations as any Hotel can in the interior of Kentucky. Having had thirty years' experience, off and on, in the business he thinks he knows how to make the wayfarer feel at home. He has a good bar, and a Clerk accompanied by any—the veteran John Romans, who has had years of experience in the business. Good stable well filled with provender, with the best of booties. Thanks to the good people for past favors, and as space is made in this place, we hope you will not be backward in stopping at Lancaster, and especially at the Carson House. R. CARSON.

DISSOLUTION.—By mutual consent, the firm of Stagg & Terhune, Cabinet-Makers and Undertakers, in Stanford, is dissolved, Mr. Stagg retiring. The business will be continued by the undersigned at the same stand on Depot street. I have employed Mr. Stagg as a workman, and he will remain with me. The public patronage is respectfully solicited. E. A. TERHUNE.

THE PEOPLE WANT PROOF.—There is no medicine prescribed by Physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue as BROWN'S GERMANY SYRUP for Sore Throat, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs; a proof of that fact is that any person afflicted with any of the above named diseases, can get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing to every one that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by Bolton & Stagg, Main street, Stanford, Ky.

HORE JOTTINGS.

MRS. S. H. SHANKS, of this place, is quite ill with fever.

The different schools will begin their Fall and Winter session next week.

WORK is progressing on the new addition to the Stanford Female College.

PROF. TUCK speaks of Venues and jovial perturbations. We think we have heard of both before.

We thank our friend J. W. Gilham for a nice lot of splendid Concord grapes, which were large and excellent.

D. W. HILTON has returned from a paying trip to Somerset and Monticello, and is spending a few days in town.

J. B. DENNIS, Esq., Police Judge elect, has received his commission, and will hold his first court to-morrow, Saturday.

A COUNTY officer visited the Tunnel, the other day, on a tour of inspection. Some good may come of his visit, it is hoped.

Some worthless night prowler stole five long leather straps from Bowen Candies' stage at the stable last Wednesday night.

ONE of Crab Orchard's most lovely Misses, Miss Maggie Wainright, spent a few days with her friend, Miss Eva Carter, this week.

The dilapidated condition of several of our public buildings, admonish those who are most interested, that the winter is fast approaching.

THE Business Manager of this paper is the happiest man in town. Cause why? His sweetest sent him a bouquet—the prettiest imaginable.

It is said that Bridgewater will be well enough to come up from Louisville jail to undergo his trial at our coming October term of the Circuit Court.

NEARLY everybody about town and vicinity, is laying in his supply of coal for winter. This is right, while the "bituminous" sells for 7 cents per bushel.

THE Male Seminary here, is undergoing many long-needed repairs, under the skillful management and mechanism of Messrs. E. M. Davidson and W. B. Berry.

REV. G. O. BARNES closed his series of meetings last Sunday evening at 4 o'clock, in one of the best sermons of the course, explaining the 15th chapter of Genesis.

"Now is the accepted time!" "Now is the day" to purchase your jeans. You can get it of the best quality at the lowest prices at Hayden Brothers, who are just in receipt of several cases.

It costs nearly as much freight on a car of coal as the coal itself costs. The transportation rates are too high. But then you know there is a monopoly, and a fellow can't help himself.

It occurs to us that it would have been enterprising in the railroad officials, and a great accommodation to the public, if they had run a special train to the races at Crab Orchard this week. But they didn't.

MR. H. C. MITCHELL, of the prominent and well-known wholesale liquor house of Thomas, Major & Pierce, is on a business trip through this part of the State, and made us a brief call on Thursday last. Success to him.

The citizens of Stanford are enjoying excellent health, notwithstanding the great number of inferior melons they eat every day. To the purity of our water and the salubrious atmosphere, this blessing of health is attributable.

We notice that several of our enterprising merchants are having their sidewalks paved. By order of the Trustees, they are using brick. In former years stone was used, which was quarried in the State of Virginia and hauled here in wagons.

MR. J. E. BAUER desires us to say, that he is still at his old stand, the Livery Stable, on Depot Street, and that he is prepared at all hours, to feed your horses or hire you his. The wants of Commercial Travellers will be promptly and well attended to.

We had the pleasure of examining the handsome and stylish display of Fall Hats, which have just been received at Hayden Bros. They are neat, cheap and desirable. Call and examine, and we are sure you will be pleased with the styles and prices.

MISS KATIE DORMAN, of Nicholasville, whose several months stay in our town has added so greatly to the happiness of many of our young men, returned to her home this week. Cheer up, ye disconsolate youths for there is a prospect of her speedy return. So note it be.

C. GREENWALD, of the New York Store, having rented the commodious new Store House of Mr. Geo. D. Wearen, will occupy the same about the 15th of next month—(September), and will open one of the finest and largest stocks of goods, of infinite variety, ever offered to the citizens of this section.

THE town authorities are having Depot street thoroughly relaid with excellent gravel, taken from the branch which runs past Fort Logan. It will be in excellent order for Winter. A top-dressing on Main street and others would be a desirable improvement, and we hope it will be done before the bad weather begins.

RENTED.—Mr. G. D. Wearen, one of the most enterprising and stirring of our good business men, has nearly completed his new and handsome business house, and has rented it to Mr. Greenwood, of the "New York Store." Mr. Wearen thinks of building another store house adjoining this one. We hope he may find it to his interest to do so.

LARKIN DECATUR EDGE, Esq., the "flower of the youth," and the jovial Jehu of the Somerset stage, says that he has not turned the stage over lately, but would not tell if he had. The "Flower" has not tasted a "drop" for five months, and reports that the amount of fun that he sees now, does not compare with the days of yore.

THERE is a man living in this county who is about ninety years old. His eyesight failed him more than twenty years ago, but the other day, while attempting to read a newspaper, "light" broke upon him suddenly and he was then enabled to read the finest print. We are informed that this is certainly true. It may, or may not be true.

A MAN told a reporter of the Journal, last Tuesday, that about five miles beyond King's Mountain tunnel, a negro man shot at and probably wounded an Irishman. The matter seems to have been kept a profound secret, as we have been unable to learn any particulars. However, the report may be true. If so, we presume that there will be some efforts made to ascertain the facts in the case.

A GLOOMY revival of religion closed at Mt. Hebron, Baptist Church, in Garrard county, last week, after continuing eleven days. The pastor, Rev. B. F. Taylor, was ably assisted by Rev. N. B. Johnson, of Waco, Madison county. These Ministers have great cause for thankfulness, their labors having been rewarded by thirty-one additions to the Church; 27 by experience and baptism, and 4 by letter.

MR. JAS. A. CROW, of this county, left at our office as a sample, four heads of German Millet, the seed of which was sown the 1st of June last, as an experiment. He informs us that he has harvested the crop this week. This is pretty early, and our farmer friends would do well to call in and look at this fine specimen. Millet will soon become one of our largest crops, as it makes fine winter provision for all kinds of stock, and will grow on almost any kind of soil.

WHEN the C. S. R. R. shall have been completed, it will pay any one to travel over it from end to end, just for the beautiful views presented at almost every mile of the way. The scenery at Kentucky river bridge, the Cumberland, and that along the Clinch river in Tennessee, is said to be the grandest in the South. Tunnels, trestles, bridges, etc., together with the mountains and valleys, afford an unending pleasure to the eye of those who love the sublime and the beautiful in nature.

MR. M. D. HUGHES, a young man of energy and talents, has been appointed to teach the district school at Stanford, and entered upon his duties in Monday. Mr. Hughes has much experience and will give abundant satisfaction. We are glad that the Trustees have secured the services of one so competent. We regret that there is no suitable place for teaching this school. The railroad company destroyed the old grounds and building, and the Trustees were forced to rent an upstairs room on one of our public streets, where there are no play-grounds or other conveniences. We hope that before another session closes to find that some better house will have been provided.

FROM the enthusiastic terms in which our young people speak of the party given in honor of Mr. Henry Bright, of Bloomington, Ill., by his kinsman Mr. James Givens, it was a most enjoyable affair. A large number of our town beauties, together with many lovely ones from the country, presenting an array of loveliness not to be surpassed anywhere, attended by their gallant escorts, added to their smiles to the happy occasion, and we doubt not, that many a love affair will date its beginning from last Monday night. At about ten o'clock, a most sumptuous supper was set to which ample justice was done, and after several hours of true enjoyment the happy party reluctantly departed to their homes, each treasuring in his heart, a bright memory of that joyous night. Mr. Bright left for his home on yesterday, where the good wishes of his many friends follow him.

SOMETHING NEW FOR SCIENTISTS TO EXPLAIN.—A citizen of Lincoln, who has long been very jolly and very portly, was noticed recently to have become gloomy and taciturn. In time his rotundity began to diminish. He was evidently pining away. Solicitous neighbors anxiously inquired the cause of this remarkable change. At length the patient confided the information that he had an old and cherished friend whom he had not seen for years, although satisfied that that friend was always at hand—yet always invisible. This was his "skeleton in the closet." This was what was pining on his mind and wasting away his body. In this state of the case, a friend, who had studied the science of optics, and knew something of the angles of incidence and reflection, suggested the use of a mirror. The hint was acted on, and strange to say the mourner beheld, faithfully depicted on the polished surface, the well remembered lineaments of the "loved and lost"—changed, "tis true, but still the same.

The communication of Prof. Myers in this issue, is worthy of perusal by our citizens. The enterprise of which he writes should receive the unqualified commendation of all. A good school, with cheaper rates of tuition than parents now labor under, is a matter of the first importance. At present, there are but few who can pay them without serious difficulty. It requires about $15 per session of ten months, in the primary branches alone, while in the Junior classes it is about $50—and in the Senior, considerable more than that, and that, too, without any extra studies. Add the language, and the price is about $70 per session of 42 weeks. If, then, a parent has three or four children to educate, the average cost to him will be from $200 to $350 per 42 weeks. How many can stand that drain? It is over half as much as the entire wages of our best mechanics. Such a state of case virtually deprives many children of a thorough education. Does it not behoove all then, to foster any enterprise that will relieve them of part, at least, of a burden so grievous?

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS.

Hustonsville.

You will be pleased to learn that your efficient Clerk, J. Blain, Esq., seems to have made manifest improvement during his brief sojourn in this place. There is strong probability, that removed from the shadow of the Courthouse—recalling the memories of boyhood's days, and meeting again the hearty salutations of his hosts of friends, he will continue to improve in health, and dissipate the vapors that thickened around him in your active, energetic community.

A DESIRE having been expressed by many friends to procure a portrait of the late Judge Cook, we are requested by one of his relations to say, that diligent inquiry has been made, and no picture of him can be found. It is to be feared that there is none in existence. This will generally be regretted; for no man ever lived in the county, more universally esteemed.

WE owe an acknowledgment to your gifted, and graceful correspondent, "Ethelbert." He will please to consider it paid. As we would fear to encounter his trenchant logic in controversy, or expose our slight armor to the shafts of his repartee, so we reluctantly against meeting him upon the flowery-strewn, but dangerous field of compliment.

REPORTS are still rife in reference to the "Jibinainoy," or Nick of the woods. He was encountered on Sunday morning, by Jno. Tombs, on Green River, near Jerry Wilcher's. At sight of Mr. T. he fled, and after a considerable race, evaded his pursuer. John describes him as a healthy looking, and well clad negro, probably a fugitive from justice. But there is rather a startling finale to this story. On Sunday night, about a mile from the scene of the morning chase, the family of James McKinney, were alarmed by sounds proceeding from an upper room, and soon steps were heard descending the stairway. The door was promptly secured. An armed posse collected in the room below, the door was shaken from within—a visible pallor began to besiege the faces of the expectant throng. Our friend, Jim, who had stormed Vicksburg, and fought and starved from Cumberland Gap to Red River, without a tremor, felt a strange sensation now. At length sains were brought to bear upon the stairway—the door was opened, and the intruder ordered to come forth and surrender—when a dyspeptic looking house cat, emerged from the gloom, illustrating the "step from the sublime to the ridiculous." FAIRPLAY.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.

Lancaster.

THE young men of the town gave a sociable "hop" here Friday night last.

THE Grangers of Garrard county, have resolved to hold a Granger Bazaar Meeting at Pleasant Grove Church, near Camp Dick Robinson, Sept. 15, 1875.

PERSONAL.—The following young ladies are visiting friends in town, and vicinity. Miss Mattie A. Davis, Danville; Miss Edna Rice, daughter of Hon. M. Rice, formerly of this county, now a resident of Little Rock, Ark.; Miss Bettie Stagg, Hustonsville, Ky.; Miss Birdie and Madge Wilbers, Canton, Ind.

MESSRS. R. A. BURNSIDE, of this place, and Capt. Cowan, of Lincoln county, have bought and shipped from here to Philadelphia, a lot of fancy roadsters and carriage horses. They were said to be the finest lot of horses ever shipped from Garrard county; among them, some very fast ones; two of which, will doubtless be heard from as performing great wonders on the Eastern turf.

COUNTY COURT day Monday. A very good crowd in town, business rather dull, as will be seen from the following report of sales given us by the accommodating Auctioneer, Mr. H. T. Bush, about 150 head mixed cattle on market; 13 yearling heifers (common) 2½cts. per hundred; 20 short yearling cattle $25 per head; oxen $75 to $125 per yoke; milch cows $30 to $35; few mules on the market; yearlings $50.

CIRCUIT COURT is still in session—not a great amount of business doing. The case of the Commonwealth vs. E. Best and Andy Conn, charged with killing Post Master Hodgner, were reached last week, and defendant's announced themselves ready for trial, the cases were continued at the request of the Commonwealth's Attorney. The Grand Jury have adjourned, they returned 78 indictments less than was returned at the last term. The Court will extend through next week, and perhaps longer.

At a meeting of the delegates from the different Grangers in Garrard county, held at the Grange Hall, in Lancaster, on this day—on motion Morgan Hudson was called to the chair, and J. S. Robinson made Secretary. On further motion it was

Resolved, That the Grangers of Garrard county hold at Pleasant Grove Church, near Camp Dick Robinson, September 15th, a Bazaar Meeting. It was Resolved 2. That the Masters of the different Granges in the county, be, and hereby constitute a Committee to invite orators for the occasion. It was further Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed by each Grange in the county to meet at Lancaster, the 1st Saturday in September, at 12 o'clock, P. M., and make the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

Resolved 4th. That all the Grangers of Garrard and adjoining counties, and all other good citizens are invited to attend said meeting.

Resolved 5th. That the Danville Advocate and Interior Journal publish the proceedings of this meeting.

MORGAN HUDSON, CHAIRMAN.
J. S. ROBINSON, Sec'y.

LAND, STOCK, AND CROP ITEMS.

COAL has declined to seven cents per bushel.

COE COWAN sold this season about 1500 pounds of honey, at 25 cents per pound.

THE corn crop is safe—it is also immense. One dollar per barrel will be the price, we learn.

THERE are several desirable farms near Stanford, on good pikes, for sale at a bargain. Why don't they advertise them?

FLOUR made of wheat which was thought to be unfit for the purpose, makes excellent bread. After all, Providence did not afflict us as bad as we feared.

A FEW apples are brought into our market from the south-eastern counties, but they are very good or wholesome.

ALMOST any kind of grass and many of the tender weeds will make very palatable food for stock if properly sun-dried. Everything should be utilized this year.

A PAIR of broke mules passed through town the other day en route to St. Louis, to be used in the carriage of a banker of that city. They were a glossy black, and sold for $650.

MR. H. BROWN, of Lancaster, drove through town last Wednesday, about 150 head of good mountain sheep, for which he paid $3cts. per pound. They are intended for the Cincinnati market.

GOLDSMITH MAID redeemed herself the other day, and regained her temporary lost crown, as Queen of the Trotting Turf. She won three straight heats, besting the mare, Lulu, and several others. Her fastest mile this time was 2:15.

WM. M. BALL paid $9,405 cash for the farm of P. F. Hays, known as the old Kincaid place. Mr. Ball has now about 450 acres of excellent land. He will remove to the dwelling on the farm just purchased, and Mr. Hays will, we learn, come to town to live.

"Roasting ears" are so plentiful now, that the largest, longest, and best, sell in our market for three quarters of a cent each. Beans, both snap and cornfield, sell for about twenty-five cents a bushel. There is no prospect for starvation in any part of this "happy land of Canaan."

E. T. HOOD, of Garrard county, sold last week, to Clark Farris, of Lancaster, a bay colt, four years old, for the sum of $200 cash. It is said the colt could make a mile in harness, as a trotter, in 3:10—although he had been handled only about three months. Mr. Hood is said to be a good trainer.

A PAIR of beautiful carriage mares was sold to a party living in Cincinnati, on Tuesday last, at the "moderate" sum of $725. They were well trained to the harness, and with the vehicle to which they will be attached, make a fine display. We were requested to give no names. Perhaps they, the purchasers, desire to make a speculation.

J. L. BRUCE, Executor of Jas. S. Bruce, dec'd., will sell to the highest bidder, at his late residence in Lincoln county, on Wednesday, September 23d, all the personal and real estate belonging to said decedent. The farm contains 287 acres. It lies on the Danville and Lancaster pike, 4 miles from the former place—is a high state of cultivation. All the stock, crop, farming implements, &c., &c. Terms made known on day of sale. 181—2t.

It is a little strange that although there has been so much rain during the Summer, and so many farms overflowed, the lands on the bottoms of upper Green river and its tributaries have scarcely suffered at all. Hence the farmers along that water course have little to complain of. The reason of this is mostly from damage is that the soil is a sandy, gravelly loam, and it sinks into the "bowls of the earth" almost as fast as it falls. By the way, there are many thousands of acres of land along these streams of good fertility, and they only need proper culture to bring them out profitably.

SPRING HILL RACE COURSE.—The summer meeting of this Association has been fairly attended. We learn that a number of excellent horses were on the course, and that some extra good races have been run. We regret that owing to unavoidable absence from home, we were not able to attend. Below is given a brief statement of Wednesday's races:

Benchler, in a ½ mile dash, won the race at Crab Orchard, with four competitors. The colt belongs to B. G. Thomas, Lexington. The second race, dash 1½ mile, for all ages, was won by Hazen, 4 years old, and she is also, owned by Major Thomas.

LAURA G. and Elsie Moore, two mares that belong to W. R. Withers & Co., won races at Crab Orchard the first day of the meeting. Laura G. belongs to our Sheriff Withers, and is a promising filly. Captain Tom Shanks, our Representative elect, is part owner.

George Bowman, owned by Logan & Bruce, of Garrard, won the first race on Thursday, in 1:40. Oxmore, owned by Jackson, of Lexington, won the second, carrying 140 pounds, in 1:52.
